TippyMe

LIVE PRODUCT | SOLO FOUNDER

Support shouldn't require a bank account in a DM.

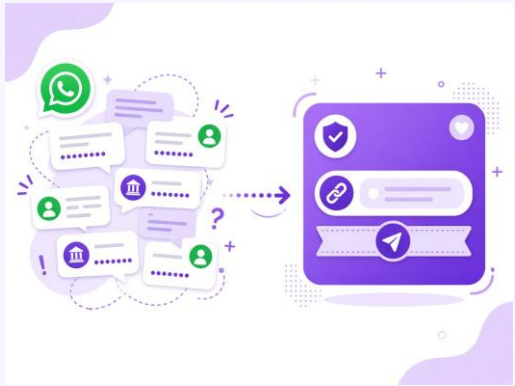

One link for everyone who wants to support your work.

THE PROBLEM

The desire to support exists. The experience gets in the way.

01	Bank details in chats	Account numbers get copied into DMs and group chats.
02	Scattered payment tools	Support becomes a multi-step task instead of a simple thank you.
03	A narrow creator lens	Builders, writers and community makers are often left out.

Friction sits between gratitude and payment.

THE SOLUTION

One link. Three simple moments.

TippyMe turns support into a clear, human journey.

1 Create Claim a personal page in minutes.

2 Share Use one link across social, newsletters and websites.

3 Receive Supporters pay and leave a message - no account needed.

WHY TIPPYME

More personal than a payment link.

A creator-support experience, not another wallet.

One reusable link

No bank details pasted into chats.

No supporter sign-up

Less friction between intent and action.

Support feels human

Messages and anonymity preserve the personal moment.

Built for African makers

Developers, writers, artists and community builders.

TippyMe owns the creator experience.
Bachs moves the money.
